Replacing my own lost copy of this classic review of Modern Architecture. I don't agree that there is no single Modern Movement. It ran from Jenks' "mainstream tradition" (p31) to the bland international style (p120 / p196) and the gratuitous shapism (p122 / 139) both of which trends lacked any vision of an ideal market. Infinitely accessible and informative, Charles Jencks is sensible and bodacious in his far-ranging discussions of the architecture of this century.

The Evolution Of Modernism In Architecture And Its Impact on the 21st Century. architecture, Modernism. From a movement that eschewed ornamentation in favour of function, to a solution for social issues, Modernist architecture has been influencing building design since before the Second World War. Key principles such as anti-historicism, function, progress and social morality translated to high expectations, ones that often did not meet the real needs and wants of families and communities.
