Procedures describe how a policy will be actioned within the school. Procedures tend to outline who will do what, the steps they need to take, and the forms or documents they should use to record it. Sometimes a procedure might be a list or some bullet points; sometimes it might take the form of a check-list or a flow chart. Policies and procedures both list the purpose and aims of the document, and the

Private Schools Policy and Procedures Manual
School policies and procedures are essentially the governing documents by which your school district and school buildings are operated. It is essential that your policies and procedures be current and up-to-date. These should be reviewed and revised as necessary, and new policies and procedures should be written as needed.
