We were enemies of God and friends of the world. As dead people, we had no identity. According to 1 Peter 2:10, we had failed to qualify to be called people. In God’s eyes, people are defined as being those who are home to His Sanctifying Spirit. The sobering truth is that... Before Christ, we were nothing more than a walking, talking, breathing corpse!

WHO WERE WE BEFORE CHRIST? – Royalty Walk

Plato, among many others, was convinced that there were such things as absolute beauty and truths. He believed that what we call the ‘soul’ was eternal, and that all knowledge was simply a form of remembering things that our soul knew before birth.

We had a new spiritual birth. We were born again. We became babes in Christ. And, we have a new home in Heaven. 1 Corinthians 12:13 For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. We were baptized into the body of Christ by the Holy Spirit.

Before and After In Christ | hatchcreek.com Bible blog

Before we were saved, we were spiritually dead, disobedient and depraved (Eph. 2:3). We used to be just like the unsaved people that we see every day. We were “among” them. We once “conducted ourselves” like them. Three things corrupt all men: the world – our external enemy; the flesh – our internal enemy; and the devil – our infernal enemy.

But if we try, we can remember who we were before the mess. We can take steps to reunite with that person, to reemerge as the person we always had the potential to be. We listen, and we understand. Many of us have personal experience with recovery. Enlightened Solutions offers therapy, mentoring, and friendship.

Remembering Who We Were Before the Addiction

And therefore I was entirely without God and without hope. In other words, Paul says we ought to remember from what we have been saved. We ought to call to mind our condition before and without Christ. If you, like me, trusted Christ as your savior when you were very young, you might be tempted to say here, "I have nothing to remember.
